Author's note

Dear Readers,

Planetary movements impact everything and everyone on planet Earth without any bias or prejudice!

B.V. Raman, one of the most prominent astrologers, once said: "Fools obey planets while wise men control them," meaning 'fools' accept their destiny while 'wise men' attempt to govern theirs through awareness.

This book intends to reach people of all age groups and classes. Astrology, if understood correctly, can be the most useful tool for dealing with the daily transactions of life. I have covered the basic and advanced concepts in detail and feel very confident that this material fulfills a real and long-felt need for a publication that can be consumed by both an educated literate and an average everyday user.

"Horoscope 2020" is designed to meet different personal and business needs. This annual guide prepares you to take reasonable steps for various upcoming celebrations, successes, and achievements in the year ahead.

The Sun, by its daily movements and seasonal changes, brings alterations on planet Earth such as the perfecting of embryos in plants and animals. The Moon, being closest to our planet Earth, swells the rivers, rules the sea tides, affects plants and animals through its waxing and waning.

All the information in this book has been treated with great care and scrutiny. Teachings in this book are the outcome of practical studies and experiences, rather than being a random selection from some Sanskrit texts.

‘Human will’ is free to a large extent and, when coupled with gaining some advance knowledge about ‘the time,’ enables one to scale new heights with great triumphs.

I will feel amply rewarded if, by the study of this annual guide, my readers are inspired and well-prepared to take steps in mastering their lives. I also humbly crave the indulgence of my readers for pointing out any shortcomings or imperfections that they may notice in this edition. I openly welcome all valuable suggestions and feedback for our future publications.

Gratitude

Shri Anilkumar S Shrungarpure – My late father, who practiced mantra and tantra for years. His guidance and motivation helped me to create the required ‘aura’ while practicing the ‘mantra siddhi’ for myself. All my inclinations to yogic practices, mantra, and tantra are purely blessings from my late father.

Mrs. Anjana A. Shrungarpure – My mother is the solid foundation behind all my achievements in different astrology practices. She inspired and instilled strong values of discipline and punctuality in each of her children, from a very early age.

Mrs. Archana T. Bhatt - My eldest sister always inspired me with her knowledge and predictions around palmistry. I credit her and my late father for my strong interest in Astrology.

Mrs. Arpana P. Ahluwalia & Mrs. Alpa K. Patel – My other two elder sisters have always stood firm by me and have given me the motivation to come out of my most darkest odds numerous times.

I take this opportunity of expressing my thanks to Ms. Roma (Khushi) Shatani – A single person providing a whole family’s worth of support. It was her vision for me to share my astrological knowledge beyond my personal circle and benefit as many people as possible. Although she is reluctant to believe it, “Horoscope 2020” is reaching you only because of her continued support. Thank you, Khushi!

I must extend thanks to my first cousin – Mr. Ateet N. Desai and sister-in-law – Mrs. Kosha A. Desai, who have worked tirelessly in promoting my initiative through social networking platforms.

Family is the most important limb of a person’s life. You are nothing without the support of the people around you. I am truly blessed to have the support, love, and guidance from everyone around me and wish the same for all my readers.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

You've all that is required for a leader to head the army. Shiva blesses you the position, authority, and power and advises you to stay calm and polite with the people. Elderly family members, parents, or in-laws will seek your attention to their health concerns. They will require your emotional and mental support. Just being there will energize them with hope and positivity. Health problems could be an illusion in the beginning. Check with your doctor or physician after the later in the month. Your relationship problems will be sorted by the end of this month, which will lead to a prosperous and happy life. Colleagues, peers, and bosses will recognize your wisdom in handling career or business concerns.

February 2020

You will spend most of your time in all the areas of life viz. travel, journey, money, profit, romance, love, affair, and relationship are serving you. Spouse, siblings, and friends are your greatest strengths. You are energetic and firm enough to deal with any situation. However, you are a victim of emotion in anticipation of some pain or danger. This fear could be imaginary and may not exist at all. Shiva advises you to control your assumptions and worry. All is well when the end is well, and you may not see significant loss or damage to unnecessarily impact your present. It's a perception you need to change. Enjoy the moment and live life to explore all the dimensions.

~2020 Weekly Graph~*1 January

You are ambitious with a strong desire for success in your career. There's good news for you. 2020 has a lot for you than you have planned or even imagined. Shiva advises you to sketch your career plans and goals for the financial growth you want to achieve during 2020. You may be scared because of the holdback in your career/financial position" for more than 24 months. Assuming the same this year is merely an illusion – the same illusion goes for your health, which seems too weak or stressed. Stay relaxed and work on your career plans.

5 January

Continuing with the career, you are focused on fulfilling the expectations of your boss and superiors. Shiva blesses you with a new business or job opportunities. Be wise and intellectual to opt for the right opportunity that may yield lots of benefits as the year progresses. Financial matters or monetary stress will have support from the family, partner, and parent figures. You will find yourself weak and low because of financial concerns. Be careful while dealing with the family matters and avoid unnecessary assumptions, thereby conflicts with your dear ones. Shiva advises to practice meditation, relaxation, and keep your calm to balance the time.

12 January

Money matters are gradually settling, and you will see some gains coming your way. Some return on investment or recovery is possible. Concerns for siblings, family, and friends may rise. However, be careful of your emotions before promising out of bound commitments. You will be a bit aggressive on yourself because of your lazy and slothful attitude at work. Shiva blesses you with high energy and multiple opportunities in 2020. The latter part of the week will give you joy and happiness with your partner, in-laws, extended family, and friends. Expenditure may rise for gifts, parties, and celebrations. You will look forward to revising/planning some goals for the career, business, and even personal life.

19 January

You may have some conflicts or arguments with the spouse, partner, or close family members. Be receptive to suggestions from elders and parent figures. Shiva suggests you take care of the emotions of your folks. Your spirit of decorating the succeeding time is high, and the good news is that you will have the opportunity till November 2020 to bring in most of your wishes thorough planning and hard work. Dialogues with the officials, authorities, and agencies may still not work. However, you are wise and experienced enough to tackle such circumstances. You may receive some news from abroad. Plan your travel with the passage of time and not immediately.

26 January

Pending deals with the officials and agencies from the last week may see a movement or closure. You will have the authority, power, and command over your elders. Handle children and youngsters delicately for their stubbornness. Your humble attitude will earn you happiness and harmony with the spouse, family, children, partner, and friends. Shiva allows you to grab the options for living the material life instead of going for self-denial or a spiritual discipline. You are a changed personality with better morale and ethics.

2 February

Monetary gain and confidence are playing an important role. Be careful before opening yourself to strangers, and do not get trapped in your promises. The health seems to be improving, and you will observe a sense of peace within you. Too much focus at work and less attention for the family will rise for some domestic complaints from the spouse, children, or parents. Shiva has planned the overall work-life balance for you in 2020. So be less aggressive while responding to the domestic matters, or even work-related concerns. Plan out new learnings, higher education, or crash courses to meet the requirements of your business/career, which will knock the door in 2020.

9 February

Gain from the stock market, race, lottery, old investments is possible. Shiva offers you new business opportunities, new assignments as work, essential business dialogues, valuable financial tie-up, order placement, or negotiations with a favourable outcome. Support from the government personnel, administrative body, or legislative council is possible. You may have to stretch yourself to seek this support. However, if you are right in your approach, you will see the work moving faster than expected. The concerns about siblings, children, pets, co-workers, or boss may take your attention. You may find yourself sailing in the multipole boats. Handle the matters diligently, quietly and steadily despite any difficulties.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

You have sound knowledge and awareness of the surrounding. Social interaction, mentorship, and leading the campaigns will be your choices. Interaction with a new crowd, increase in the address list, and domestic or global speech. Be careful while arguing with the spouse or partner. Your spouse may have increased interaction with the in-laws. However, this is not something you should involve yourself. You are intelligent, smart, and outspoken. Shiva advises you to channelize with your mother or elder siblings for any concerns you have. You are more concerned and worried about your kids and their future. News related to accomplishment in studies or careers from the children is likely to add happiness.

February 2020

Support from the government officials, authorities, and superiors will help you finishing the incomplete jobs. Shiva enables you to initiate new business avenues, career opportunities, or projects. You may gain benefits from the short term investments or funds. You will be able to maintain a prosperous personal and professional relationship. While you are trying to keep everyone around you happy, make sure to cherish the moments with your love partner, spouse, or relationship partner. Take care of the concerns of your in-laws and extended family who are genuinely connected with you. You are engaged in the deals of inherited property, own property, land, and vehicle - you may need to consult a subject matter expert in these deals.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

With a strong desire for success, you are employing efforts in planning to increase the size, volume, quantity, or scope of your business and profession. Your love partner, spouse, or children are demanding some short vacation, which is a fair demand as you have been focusing on your career last year and had a few domestic celebrations to attend. Shiva advises you to put your worry for money aside as your plans are going to work in the same direction, and you will have sound financial health as the year passes.

5 January

New business avenues, franchise opportunities for the aspirants, or quick start-up plans will initiate a positive discussion. You will find excellent investment opportunities with the support and assistance of your investment banker. And if you have not yet consulted an expert for the investment, this is the right time for your approach, an expert. You have a strong attraction towards another person if single, or your courtship period will empower your emotions of love and romance with the partner. Shiva advises you to stay away from the misunderstanding that may arise with your spouse. Instead, spend some time with your partner or spouse to celebrate for no apparent reason. Being together itself is a reason to cherish.

12 January

Your career will see new dimensions and sharp growth if you are in the right field. Audit your investments, and organize your finances to yield better results this year. Investment in real estate or landed property is beneficial for you if you do not plan to withdraw them until 2025. Shiva warns you from weak health, mental stress, unwanted thoughts, or depression that could result in ill health. Plan diet, exercises, and retreat programs to help you stay free from gloomy sentiments. Love affair and romance will aid the tension. Engage yourself more with your spouse or relationship partner and accumulate gratifying moments. Meet the people you can spend some good time with to avoid discomfort.

19 January

Hard work, persistence, dedication, money matter, financial planning, business expansion plan and execution, and job search remain your priority. Delayed results at work will disappoint you. Be conscious of holding patience and self-control while expecting returns from work or business. Shiva suggests you continue the fitness regime and diet as planned. In case you have not yet started, you have to be sincerely thinking of initiating one. Travel to home town, visiting parents, gains from the deal of property will contribute to your happiness. Put money secondary and spend some leisure time on domestic matters, romance, spouse, and family. Personal time will help you distract the stress coming from your profession, business, or work.

26 January

With improving health, relaxing thoughts, and slowing down anxiety, you have harmonious family relationships — commitment, engagement, marriage, love, and affair all in one plate. Your conscious behavior is suspicious for your partner or spouse. However, spending some more time with the better half will clear the suspiciousness. In other words, you are a magnet to the opposite gender. Shiva encourages the support from the officials, superiors, or government authority to remove the obligations you are struck with, in your personal or professional jobs. You have almost all the worldly pleasures, and you want to explore a bit of spirituality.

2 February

Expenses will find their way to empty your pockets with the social gathering, gala, banquet, barbeque. Shiva advises you to spend wisely. You are actively engaged in a lot of work, a long to-do list, and new assignments. There is a need for you to stretch your working hours. Shiva suggests you take help from your business partner, colleagues, spouse, or superiors. Be open to approach them and share your responsibilities without any prejudice or insecurity. Siblings or parents may require your attention. Keep yourself away from ire. Be flexible in your responses to understand the concern of your dear ones.

9 February

Consult your investment planner as this is a good time for you to buy longterm stocks or deposits. You may want to withdraw some securities or funds with minor hopes of appreciation or earning a return. Shiva blesses you with the firmness to proceed with your career goals, and there's no U-turn. Expenses may incur for the renovation, or repair work of the premises. Buy/sell of vehicle, or landed property is possible. You could be aggressive with your de facto partner, or spouse. Some news from overseas may please you. Take care of the emotions or health of your parents.

Gemini is the guardian of the shoulders, arms, nerve, and lungs (windpipe, throat, pulse, respiratory tract), armpit, the outline of the arm from shoulders to fingers. This zodiac controls oxygen in the blood. Saturn is an aerodynamic planet, and so is this zodiac, where Mercury is the lord this zodiac – Saturn and Mercury both rule hair as the primary and secondary lords. Thus, this zodiac rules hair on the body to quite some extent. Afflicted Gemini may cause - respiratory tract, nerve disorder, cough, lung abscess, nerve disease, young fever, pneumonia, fracture of the hand, water in the lungs, pleuritic pain

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

You start the year with a plan to improvise your financial position to earn some more coin to secure your personal life. There are earnings and benefits from foreign customers, international tie-up, or import-export deals. If you are serving a job, a threat from colleagues and managers may get you. Travel or relocation for education or work is possible. Increased expenditure on closed ones, love partner, spouse, and children will have a slight burden on your bank balance. On the plus, this will lead to a collection of memories to relish on. Shiva advises you to look after the health and wellness of a spouse, relationship partner, or even a business partner that may delay some routine obligations.

February 2020

A search for knowledge, exploring new business territories, and international opportunities or foreign tie-ups from the last month will keep your spirit high and intense. You will take part in social activities, interact with new people, and offer your support to address their concerns. While your bag is full of worldly pleasures, you want to spare some time for self-analysis through meditation, mantra chanting, and sacred texts. Shiva has balanced your life with love, companionship, support from family, and rewards from the colleagues and boss. All you need is to plan the goals as per the new business agenda.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

This year is a fresh start for you, considering your fiscal goals. You begin with the thoughts for strengthening your financial position. However, this week may bring some domestic concerns to address. Shiva blesses you with the support from spouse, children, siblings, in-laws, and friends while you are stressed or encountered by deep emotions. Probably, this is the time you need them to stay close. Alternatively, you will have a harmonious relationship and intimacy with the lover or extramarital partner. Delay any discussion related to inheritance with the paternal family, or in-laws.

5 January

Family time continues as you keep receiving support from friends and family. You are starting your journey for the year with an attitude of a treasurer. Of course, you will have a slow pace initially as you are reanalyzing your financial position. Your ruling planet Mercury signifies money, finances, business, and career with a positive movement across the zodiac. Shiva suggests you start with small investments in stocks if you are a newbie, or if you are already playing the card, you can try your luck for some substantial investments. However, consult your financial advisor as the investment market is extremely volatile, and as the mundane astrology suggests, the market will remain highly unpredictable during 2020.

12 January

Luck factor continues to yield a return on investments unless you have abruptly blocked your money without consulting an expert in the past. Tangible benefits from funds are possible even through gambling, race, or foreign assets. Shiva advises you to take precautionary measures for the health of your family members, which could be because of some emotional bumps. There seems some loss of business or job/position – this still depends on one's personal horoscope. This loss or degradation can be avoided by not indulging in any arguments at work or with business associates. Despite these odds, there does not seem a significant impact on your career.

19 January

You are planning to start a parallel income, which is undoubtedly a smart move to build your separate empire. You may want to enroll for advanced learning or crash courses to mature your strategy for achieving the annual career targets. Business travel or migration to another place for work is possible. Shiva blesses you with financial strength through investments, or you may have increased client flow if you are into the consulting business. Your domestic and love life is peaceful, and you may have a good time with your family and friends. You have the right attitude to take care of your family.

26 January

While the monetary gain continues even from the remote sources, your domestic life requires your patience and calmness. Shiva suggests you avoid any negative thoughts or absurd responses to your loved ones, which may create irrational and meaningless consequences within the family. Love, affair, extramarital relationships may start. You may adopt an unethical approach in generating income, building relationships, or creating business opportunities. If you are keen to retain the moral standards or principles and want to avoid such thoughts, you should engage yourself with spouse, children, siblings, and parents. You are a responsible and faithful head of the family, and you will enjoy being with the family this week.

2 February

It could be a happy realization, and you are back to the family ties. Domestic bliss and peace will be maintained. The health of your sibling, father, or elderly family member could be a concern. You are slow at work, and probably not able to receive the results of your efforts. Shiva advises you to listen to your intuitions, and avoid any external consultation as it might misdirect you while making important career or relationship-related decisions. The possibility of a job change or cross border business opportunity is high. You may involve yourself in social activities, people's welfare, or charity.

9 February

Opportunity for business expansion, job change, or international ties is already knocking the door and may continue to show up this week. You may need to define your priorities and start executing the task list with the financials at the top. Second, you can put spirituality, rituals, or yogic practices on the list. Shiva strengthens your determination and focuses while you are chasing your goals. Although money inflow is on, you may have to face some financial stress or loss due to nonperforming investments or projects. Try to move your unstable funds to reliable plans before you encounter financial deprivation if you are running a large organization - in case of an individual, the same risk could be applicable at a low scale.

CANCER
THE PRECEPTOR / THE TEACHER
Birthday from 21 June to 20 July

Representation – The Crab

Symbol - ♋

Element – Water

Negative Expression – Retiring, Oversensitive, Distorted ideas, Become irritable, Proud, Mean, Miserliness, Bitter attitude

Academics or Career or Business

Acting, Drama, Entertainment, Politics, Publishers, Spiritual Teacher, Government Officers, Public servants, Painters, Limners, Photographers, Scientists, Geologist, Aquatic Biologist, Military, Police, Forced labor, Bankers, Travel and tourism, Brokers, Agents, Musicians, Artists, Solicitors, Lawyers, Writers, Teachers, Astrologers, Mystics, Snake Charmer, Zoo Keepers, Prostitutes, Pimps, Florists, Perfume dealers, Jewelers, Airhostess, Hostess, Dealers of electronics appliances, Agriculturists, Agronomy, Farmers, Provision store, Horticulturist, Liquor trader

Possible health concerns when afflicted

(Please note that this is an astrological view and not a medical diagnosis; consult your doctor for the medical aspect.)

Cancer is the guardian of the chest, breasts, hollow part of the chest, stomach, the abdominal region between the chest-shoulder-ear-pit-navel, digestive tract, food vessels, pancreas, thorax, the ovarian body and some part of the uterus. However, constipation is not with Cancer. Afflicted zodiac may cause – weak chest, botchy chest, digestive disorders, gastric, ascites, dropsy, cough, tussis, cancer, chest irritation, pyrosis, burning sensation in the chest, soreness, ache, pain, burp, dysfunction caused by seven significant metastases in the body, diseases caused bad air in the body, bile, cholera, vitiligo, beriberi, whiteness due to blood deficiency, anemia

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

Your sensible and practical approach to life will give you a direction for adopting a lot of changes to balance the family and professional life. Homesickness, feeling, emotion, and all that could convey your distributed presence from the dear and near ones will be high. You have a burden of financial responsibilities and still trying to find out a way to manage the obligations. Shiva has planned a lot of transformation for you, which will help you to mature your understanding in dealing with petty and major concerns ahead. Take consultation from an expert before investing or withdrawing the deposits, funds, or buying and selling the property.

February 2020

You're influenced by the "me" factor, which will make you stubborn from changing the perception to look at the current state of affairs. While you are emotional and concerned for the love and romance, you are ready to make a move for professional engagement. Your dreams are high in the sky, and you're looking to change your area of the profession, line of business, or job to step ahead. Shiva warns you from indulging in fantasy and suggests you be practical for your love life. There's no fun without love and family, but this is the time you need to gear up the career and professional life.

~2020 Weekly Graph~*1 January

You are instilled with the feeling of love and affection. You will put the memories with those of past times. Setting plans for higher studies, knowledge, and research will be your next action. The year starts with a sense of direction. You are aware of your orientation in space. You are apprehensive of your financial need for reaching the plans of 2020. Shiva is granting you the capacity and aptitude to cope with the fiscal responsibilities.

5 January

A time for transformation. Think differently as your common sentiments are stopping you from exciting experiences. Experience is the best teacher. You are concerned about monetary compensation where you've to understand that life is not limited to money and trade. Your plans for higher studies, migration, and foreign tie-ups require you to undertake new and daring initiatives. Shiva is with you if you display courage and a proactive approach to advance your action. Physical weakness is a fictitious excuse for the absence of confidence.

12 January

Money, finance, mother, family, and personal responsibilities are your priorities. Unless you have a partnership business with your spouse, you will put the profession and job secondary. Your fundamental nature is to care about the family. You may seem irresponsible because you are weak at executing your feelings for them. Shiva recommends you altering the way of communication when it comes to your loved ones. The probability of spending or disbursing money is bothering you as the family is your priority even over money and profession this week.

19 January

A strong emotion, aggression, disturbance, and ire do not suit your personality. You have always been for the family, whereas your responses are the opposite. Try to change your attitude and conduct while dealing with parents, siblings, spouse, and children. Shiva is counseling you to govern your nature and control the unplanned or spontaneous responses. There is no need to speechify on every occasion. Health will see some burning sensation, irritation, or ache, which is temporary.

26 January

The family has been your priority, focus, and area of worry till now. Your attention will divert to the extended family, parent figures, and in-laws. Homesickness, nostalgia, emotions to depart from the dear ones are eminent. You will receive support and cooperation from the family. You're off the job for quite sometimes. Your fellow mates, peers, boss, and co-workers may need your attention. Although the family takes all the precedence in your life, a career is equally important. Shiva protects your emotions by engaging you in the work environment, which will aid the family unwellness.

2 February

You will observe personal, professional, and social well being. A lavish buffet, pleasure, delight, rick, and superior life has always been with you. Shiva commands you to change the perspective towards living, and you have all the earthy happiness and joy. Love, affection, and attachments are a unique menu for dinner. Wondering thoughts will make you run like a headless chicken here and there. Meditation, relaxation, and a feeling of refreshing tranquility and an absence of tension are much needed to bind yourself with the material felicity.

9 February

Your moral force is high and positive. Sumptuous living and opulent dining rooms will continue from the last week. Love, affair, relationship, and closeness with an intimate partner are taking a move. Short trips, outing, party, gathering, seminar with siblings, friends, or colleagues is possible. The property, real estate, land, new deals, and contracts will reap generous benefits. Shiva still compels to take a thoughtful and wise decision. Consult a professional before initiating or closing any trade.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

New avenues, promotion, or a different line of career will trigger a need to make some critical and important decisions about your job. You have the power and authority. If you are running a partnership business, you will have support and cooperation from your partner. Shiva grants permission if you want to start a new trade or business with your spouse or relationship partner. Be careful with your health and wellness because most of the planets in your main chart are sitting in the sixth house, having some grudge for their international relations. You are an eminent member closely associated with family, friends, and society to receive their attention on priority.

February 2020

The financial arrangements will be easier to settle your fiscal obligations. You will have support from banks, investment ventures, and associates to help you meet the business needs. Travel, migration, journey, or temporary relocation will add pleasure and success, and it will also enhance knowledge and practical approach to work concerns. Shiva warns you for an accidental injury to the foot that may trigger due to negligence or overspeeding.

One more caution is because of the association of Mar and Sun together in the 12th house of Navamsa chart that indicates “Angaraka yoga,” which creates a possibility of danger from fire.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

The celebration of the new year will start with the thought of business expansion or changing the job. You are looking forward to the plans that increase your wealth and bank balance. Shiva advises you to stay down-to-earth and give equal attention to domestic concerns. Although you say family is your priority, your attention and focus are in professional development. Discussion with mother, children, in-laws may take a different meaning. Try to explain your purpose in a different way to receive their consent.

5 January

If you are a student, you will outsmart your classmates with your intellect - this is different than the percentage you have on the mark sheet. Some difficulty in academics may reduce the performance, which can be covered up later. Slow progress in career or business is temporary.

You have new opportunities coming your way soon. Prepare yourself with the knowledge and information to seize them as they arrive. Shiva suggests you take a view of your spouse or partner even for your career and business, as they might have better propositions to make.

12 January

Display affirmation and optimism while exploring new business avenues, exploring new areas at work, or accepting new responsibilities. Being confident is a challenge for you. Practice meditation, yoga, or plan travel with the family to rejuvenate. Engage yourself in sports, exercises, or games. You can plan to invest in the jewelry or ornaments. There could be good returns in the future. Shiva warns you from becoming argumentative with your spouse, parents, and in-laws. They need your attention, and that could be a reason for their concern.

19 January

The social and spiritual spectrum will add value to your reputation. There is an inflated feeling of pride in your superiority to others, which will increase self-importance in you. You may want people to give you more attention than necessary. Understand the bidirectional importance of recognition and priority, which even people want from you. Shiva indicates an alarm for you to be extra careful while seeking a prominent status from your family, spouse, and children. They have made enough sacrifices for you, and looking for something additional may hamper their peace and harmony within the family.

26 January

Appreciate others for their contribution to your success in personal and professional front. Saturn, Mars, and Rahu, together in the Navamsa chart, indicate a threat to health and wellness. Shiva advises you be careful while traveling, walking, or running as there seems to be a risk with knee, calves, or muscles. You will have a joyful time with the love-affair-relationship partner, spouse, or a temporary partner. The inherited paternal property will have a favorable conclusion or the next agenda planned for the discussion. You influence over the people, and there're chances to meet an authority or an influential person from the society who will benefit you in the future.

2 February

You may feel lazy or find yourself passive for the movement. However, migration or temporary relocation to expand the professional reach will have convinced and positive outcomes. Shiva arranges funds, loans, and finances for you to cope up with the business or career needs. Soon you will find ways to generate new income sources to settle these obligations. You are setting a new dimension for your business, profession, or job, which will be recognized in the future. Be confident to put your plans to work.

9 February

Too many ideas, thoughts, and plans may choke your intellectual ability. Go for the meditation, relaxation camps. Take some time off from the work schedule and set yourself free for social welfare. Shiva suggests you plan some vacation or picnic with family and friends to recharge yourself. Enjoy nature and help some greenery to expand across the territory – this will give you a new sort of experience as well as you will be contributing to the environment.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

You have achieved a dignified demeanor, prestige, and a high standing through success, which is a result of your hard work and intelligence. In the upsurge of emotion, you will be spending more money behind shopping for your family. Travel, journey, or outing will extend your social network and add quality experience to your life. While your professional position is stable, you may see some domestic matters seeking your attention. The health of elderly family members will be a concern. Shiva advises you to adopt a calm and thoughtful approach for sorting the issues coming your way.

February 2020

You have romance, family, friends, social network, business expansion, and new responsibilities at work on a single plate. Your expenses are rising, and the primary reason is your lifestyle is changing. There could be spendings for others than for your own needs. More money, rise in paycheck, unexpected wealth gain will knock your door. Shiva warns you for the impulsive discussions you might end up with your closed ones. It is better to keep quiet to let things run their way when you do not own what others do. Engage yourself in social welfare if you have spare time from work and family. Spend time with the elderly family members and relive the old memories.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

Children, spouse, and money – with all of them in mind, make you are concerned about your career to secure your family. Shiva has made you a family person. However, you have always received his blessing while pursuing your hobby, profession, or part-time activities. Your position speaks at work, and the family ignores the same. Time to regain confidence, and you are all set for the walk in the woods for the 2020 journey. Cherish the new year moments with family and friends this week as the migration, departure, or relocations in the coming months will make it hard for the gathering with the same closed family members.

5 January

Wishing for a luxurious life, you are more focused and enthusiastic about the career. If you are trying new business avenues, SouthEast will be more beneficial and quick to grab the opportunities. Job search in the foreign land, or outside your birthplace will give reasonable pay hike and position. Shiva grants fast money through the sale of a vehicle, property, or small investments. However, savings do not seem to weigh as per the earnings. Some news may come from the paternal family, which you may not bother much. However, the extended family may expect you to indulge in the matter for advice or support.

12 January

You will take extreme care in the treatment of details when it comes to the official matters or related documentation. The same you would expect from your coworkers and colleagues. Stressful sleep and restlessness may disturb your state of mind. Shiva advises you narrow your thoughts to business or work-related concerns. As you settle yourself at work, you will have golden moments with your love, relationship partner, spouse, children, and parents. Expectations from the in-laws, or spouse's extended family and friends may take you away from the mental peace. However, you are wise enough to understand the innocence of your spouse in their matter.

19 January

Exorbitant expenses behind luxurious dining rooms, love affair, intimate partner, spouse, or temporary partner. Shiva suggests planning travel for business, job to explore new business avenues, or a solo trip to visit remote destinations. This journey is going to add experiencing a new culture, and meeting people and maturing your thoughts, which will eventually help you gain unprecedented prosperity. The health of the parents, in-laws, or elderly family members may require your presence or may take some time off from the routine. Support from partner, spouse, siblings, and friends will keep you stable.

26 January

Plan to gain knowledge through workshops, or enroll for the higher education programs. Reading a book will be more rewarding this week. Avoid taking consultation from a professional as that might end up in paying fees with no difference in the state of mind and outcomes. Shiva suggests you be your mentor. If otherwise, your spouse or children could be your guide for the week. You are busier at home than in the office. The support from your spouse, relationship partner, business partner, colleagues, or peers when you were in need is priceless.

Remember, this helps when some conflicts may arise in the future because of the differences of opinions for petty matters.

2 February

Association of Sun and Mars, together with Saturn spying over, is difficult for you to control the frustration and agony. Hold yourself before concluding anything for the act of your spouse, family, children, or partner as you might lack a thorough understanding of the subject. You want some breathing space, then socializing is the best option. Let the philanthropist in you come out. Many hapless people need your intelligence, knowledge, and experience to grow their maturity of thoughts. Those who cannot afford books may afford your charitable wisdom and views to educate themselves. Shiva has aligned new learnings and experiences for you through your 'own' cognition. Meditation, yogic conduct, practicing the natural healing process for energy, and self-awareness are the right approach.

9 February

Romance, love, relationship, and strong positive emotion of affection for the partner or spouse, and if single, for someone you want to propose for a long. For the singles, route your proposal through the parents or siblings of your crush. Shiva advises you to carefully observe your emotion for the opposite and avoid any fascination which might not have a permanent bonding. Increased workload or new contracts in business will spare you little time to cope up with the new requirements. However, adding new resources to the team may not be a good idea as there seems the involvement of delayed execution in work despite increasing the workforce.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

Funds, reserving money for a purpose, raising capital for business expansion, job search, or opening new wings in the occupation are in your attention list. You are hunting for various sources of investments in the business. At the job, you are spending more time for an internal movement to grab a better position or an external opportunity to click. Shiva blesses you with the potential and right direction to fulfill your aspiration. You are away from the family, and your loved ones for the majority of this month. Lately, you will spare your time for the spouse, parents, and children, which they will welcome with an open heart.

February 2020

Domestic and professional responsibilities are increasing their weight on your shoulders. Shiva advises not to go behind the money blindly and be wise while deciding the factors for wealth acquisition. A feeling of betrayal or conflicts of interest at business or workplace will bother you. Go for the retreat programs, mediation, relaxation, and yoga to build patience level and the realization of higher-self. You will find time for the family, children, and loved ones. Plan travel, picnic, outing, or at least a day's trip with the family and friends. Release the work pressure by devoting sometime with the dear ones, as there's no end to the work, and this time there's no loss due to your absence at the job or business.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

The year starts on a cheerful note. Although you are enjoying the privileges in personal life, you refrain from expressing your feelings for your loved ones. Shattered emotions for unknown reasons may try to interrupt your pleasure. Shiva suggests you spend time with your children to relish the week. You have plans to kick start your career for the new year as soon as you could. Hold your pace and enjoy your surroundings. Your job/business will occupy you soon in the next couple of weeks. Probably that time, you may not find time to spend with the family. Value the personal companionship, spouse, lovers, relationship partners, parents, in-laws, and association of close friends.

5 January

You want to get back to work aggressively, and all you have in mind is money. You are ready to put all the required efforts in securing your finances. Shiva suggests you plan your career goals for business/job progressively. Consult your professional advisor if needed. Your spouse could be your consultant, as well. However, this does not qualify to start a partnership business with the family. If you are working, you may find slow growth or ruined expectations considering promotion or change in role. Your marriage life is smoother than before, and you may enjoy harmony with your spouse or relationship partner. Bone pain, burning sensation, or muscle-related issues may deviate your focus.

12 January

Be careful while discussing domestic concerns with family. It may lead to misunderstanding or otherwise meaning to your proposals. Shiva advises you to concentrate on your potentials, which are in building your career and strengthening financial position. You can invest the surplus in long-term funds. Do not seek support from your superiors at work. They might consider your questions immature, and you may end up creating a dull impression about yourself. Find some other way of resolving your queries. You are talented and you have the year ahead to achieve all your financial and professional targets. This week is to observe the work environment.

19 January

The time stats now. A professional and treasurer in you are active. Your brains function in the right direction to execute your financial goals for the year. You are blunt and direct in your deals with the business associates to take your business to the next level. If working, you are outspoken with your boss for your promotion, salary hike and change in role. Shiva advises you to look for a better opportunity outside your current job, which may trigger in the next couple of months if you start your efforts this week. You are unstoppable and furious with a balanced approach to build yourself stronger concerning your profession, business or job. Your confidence is high and you have the potentials to convince yourself for the success you are going to achieve.

26 January

You want to pace yourself faster to cope up with the time you think you have spent idle in the last couple of weeks, or even months for some of you. However, slowing down your speed will give you more benefits in terms of work-life balance. Shiva ensures your monetary growth and success in your career with whatever you have in your hands this week. You need a wise approach to handle domestic concerns as well. Spend time with the family, children, and wife to understand their interests. They might feel left out or see you as unapproachable. Take a step forward with open arms and make them feel your priority while you are busy at work.

2 February

A concern for children may arise. There could be some challenges related to property, investment, funds, or you may face some financial constraints in business/personal areas. Shiva advises you to sit back and monitor the situation before deciding an action to tackle the circumstances. The situation around you is not as challenging as you may see. Your calm and steady approach will help you resolve the current affairs. You will receive full support from your spouse, relationship partner, or business partner during the phase. Taking the assistance of a friend could be the wrong decision this week. Let your family or in-laws assist you if you really need external help.

9 February

Start meditation or relaxation as a daily habit if you are not already following this discipline. You may need to start your day early to find peace within yourself. You are more focused on money without understanding the need of an hour. You have already put your plan to work for business growth or job change. All you have in your hands is to keep walking on the path. Shiva warns you from being aggressive and removing the job/work frustration at home and messing up the domestic environment. You may yield some return from your investment, or property that you have recently sold or under the deal.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

Entrepreneur in you is on the move with determination, clear ambition for money, name, fame, business expansion, new collaboration, refined processes, set protocols, elaborated plans, systematic actions, and no-mercy attitude with thyself; however, soft with the associates. You are ready to travel anywhere anytime to get your business growing, or if working, to reach new territories with the onsite or relocation opportunities. Shiva blesses you with wisdom, enthusiasm, and energy for combating the odds and scaling new peaks in your career or business. You may get into a commitment, engagement, marriage, or a sincere relationship. You will have a fair chance to celebrate your success with your dear ones, family, and friends.

February 2020

Love, romance, affair, intimate relations between husband and wife, or a new relationship is waiting for you. Meeting with old friends, ex-colleagues, and extended family will add happiness. Shiva blesses you monetary gains through the returns on investments, stocks, incentives. Expenses may rise, which you may not be able to stave off. Accept them with composure, and try to settle them from the second source of income. Business travel is possible for new collaborations, projects, or exploring new territories for the business. Support from your spouse or business partner will help you execute your plans. Bone pain or injury to the leg will take your attention for a while. However, you can avoid this if careful. Meditation, relaxation, or isolation will aid a substitute for mental peace.

You are too aggressive to control your actions for expanding and growing your career opportunities. You are taking unnecessary stress for the first week of this year. Shiva warns you from too many thoughts from choking your quality of being prudent and sensible. Take some time off with the family because as the week passes, you will be completely engrossed in your career and business to achieve your goals. However, be careful in diet and chose the food that suits your body. Bone pain, burning sensation in the stomach, headache, or cramps may worry you. You may have a chance to meet old friends to live over the fantastic young moments.

5 January

Property related concerns may grab your attention, and you may need to engage a real estate agent or a consultant to seek advice for the property deal. The health of the mother or maternal family member may worry you. Shiva grants you some ease from the domestic responsibilities and issues. You are ready to explore new business territories; if working, you will push your superiors for an onsite opportunity or a promotion. Shiva has equipped you to take new responsibilities, and you are firm to achieve your career goals with a detailed plan of action. The only mission you have is to engage your efforts to attain your goals, and you are entirely focused.

12 January

You are sending a recurring reminder to yourself for being persistent in accomplishing career goals. You will receive support from your business partner, spouse, or relationship partner like esprit de corps. Meaning, you have a feeling of pride and mutual loyalty shared by the people you know from every perspective for your success. Shiva advises you to hold patience and keep doing what you have planned to execute, instead of expecting results so soon. You will work jointly with new business associates or colleagues to overtake the market. In personal affairs, you may get into a commitment or spend a memorable time with your spouse. Yet you have to go a long way to fulfill your dreams.

19 January

You have a positive impact on work. You are rigorously looking to expand your experience and always looking for the next level of assignment. Domestic concerns, family, and friends are still not in mind. Shiva grants you business trips to reach the new work territories – this could be opening a new branch, giving franchise contracts, or if working, this could be a trigger for an onsite opportunity for you. Buying/selling property, vehicles, or even the discussion related to a paternal property may engage you in domestic matters. You might ignore your spouse, parents, and family while dealing with work and property-related matters.

26 January

While you were away from the family, spouse, and children last week, you realized the value of their existence in your life. You may want to go back to them, which could not be possible as you have walked too far in your career planning that the only option you have is to take the family along. Shiva advises you to include your family in the business, or if you are working, maintain a work-life balance to spend fruitful time with your family this week. You can also plan a short vacation, picnic, or even movie with your folks – this will help you to remain stressfree from the workload you faced last week.

2 February

Assignments from the previous week have added new people to your contact list. Well, not all who we meet provide meaning to our lives. However, there were some individual connections that you can rely on and initiate a personal or professional relationship to grow. You will have full support from your colleagues, peers, and office staff. They might help you finish some of the tasks from your to-do list. As you approach your personal life and look around in a close periphery, you may find love – if single, and temptation – if married. Surprisingly, you are bold to express your love or affection for the new acquaintances, and chances of affirmation from them are high this week. Shiva suggests you stay calm in case of any disappointments you face from your children concerning their studies, report cards, or even money matters.

9 February

Your professional, personal, financial, and social aura is improving, and it all seems positively influenced – this is all a result of your attitude and irrefutable approach toward the odds. Shiva blesses you with new business avenues, offer letters, projects, assignments, or extension of contracts. Family union, meeting school friends, old colleagues, distant relatives, or cousins is possible. You may fall in love or a temporary affair. It is up to you to take the bonding ahead. You have to understand that the decision is never right or wrong. However, indeed, today's decision forms the likewise relationship for tomorrow. Listen to your intuitions beyond what you know are feel.

Office and home will squeeze you like a sandwich. If that is the case, make sure you have some cheese and salad along to accompany you there. Are you confused? In simple words, you have a long checklist of domestic and work-related matters. Shiva advises you to set your priorities and follow them as it will be challenging to complete them all this month. There will be a financial burden because of increasing expenses. Travel or essential meetings with new business associates may happen – this will help to expand your professional boundaries. However, this is too early to expect the return from business travel if you are seeking some additional scope in your bucket.

February 2020

It seems like you had the amorous advances in your check-list last month. Your temporary relationship may see a commitment. The money outflow will continue for a better cause like investments, purchase of properties, or starting a new business venture. However, your financial health will see improvement. Shiva blesses you a wisdom to take some essential decisions related to your career/business, which will increase your reputation in the society. Be careful about the health of your immediate family members or in-laws. Meeting new people, or travel for work will open new opportunities for your business/career. Your plans for business/career enhancement will see a meaningful direction.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

Your accumulated efforts from the previous year continue to fetch name, fame, money, prosperity, and success in your career. For some of you, as per your personal horoscope, you will relive some old memories with the family and friends this week. You may meet new people, plan a trip with the family, or visit pilgrimage before starting your 2020 routine. Shiva advises you to avoid reaction to your children and stay away from being a sandwich between the spouse and parents. If that is the case, you try to focus on your hobbies and spend most of the week outside your home with friends. Delay the decisions or trade related to vehicle and property.

5 January

Love, romance, or intimate relationships may knock the door. You may have support from the government officials or superiors for finishing the undone assignments. Travel for work or short family trips are possible. Shiva grants you worldly pleasures like family bonding, affection from the spouse, respect and love from children, happy moments with parents, or if you are single – you may get your life partner this week. Your career continues at a slow pace, considering the start of 2020. However, you are quite ahead in achieving your career, job, or business targets than many around you. You may get to meet new people at work and in personal life.

12 January

Meeting new people from the previous week continues, and you get to expand your social network. Do not drag yourself with the demand from the people you have recently met or the contacts you are not quite acquainted with to avoid any disappointment or treason. Shiva advises you to control your senses for trusting anyone who does not comply with your standards, ethics, or principles – these references to your professional and personal affairs. You may have business or relationships tie-up from overseas associates or relatives. Be careful of your health and wellness of your in-laws, elderly family members, or children.

19 January

You want to revise your career and personal goals for the year, as you may see some delay in executing the plans or earning returns as expected. Shiva breaks the illusion of success you may be having for quite some time. As the week progresses, you may realize that you have more potentials than you have analyzed, and you would now rush to plan something huge. You may end up throwing your frustration on the closed one like family and friends. At the same time, you are conscious of your behavior in the workplace. Try to avoid this dual nature, and digest any unfavorable deals that may come your way.

26 January

As the week begins, you would want to settle the miscommunication or disharmony which triggered last week. You want to clear the confusions or disappointments with the family, and you may want to start again. Shiva blesses you with the wisdom and communication to set most of the personal affairs right. You will revise your to-list and put the concerns related to business expansion, change of role, promotion, or job change on the top. You believe in your abilities to deal with tough situations. You are courageous to walk the path least traveled for extending your business/career. A sportsman in you is waking up, and you want to enroll for the gym or start a fitness regime on your own.

2 February

Travel for work, new business deals, contracts, projects, assignments, offer letters, or essential discussions related to business expansion may start your week. While you are chasing your career goals and business targets, you are fulltime involved in private affairs and domestic happiness. Shiva blesses you with the joyful occasions, festivity, and luxurious dining with family and friends. You are conscious of your behavior and responses to them and making sure to be as soft as possible while enjoying the domestic welfare. Love and romance are high with a de facto partner or the spouse. Expenses may rise in gifts, parties, or even for the charity and donations.

9 February

You are helping the unknown people through charity, donation, or may walk up to the poor to feed their empty stomach. Expenses continue to rise for the charity and gift articles to your loved ones. Shiva blesses your pleasure in private affairs. You may want to take your commitment to the next level of relationship. However, be careful of being committed as this could be too early unless you have spent enough time in a relationship with the same partner. All these domestic concerns have taken you away from business and job goals. Your to-do list is seeing a delay in achieving the milestones, and you may want to get back to work as early as possible.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

With the family and finance in mind, you have been away from people for long. You will reconnect with your colleagues, social circle, and friends – this will help you expand your network once again. Spouse, parents, children, and siblings are your world - you are a family person with money in mind to secure them. You will have support from your love, relationship partner, and spouse to expand your business, which is the best partnership you will ever have. Shiva advises you to strengthen your financial health as you have been aiming for it for long. You have already started your attempts for a job change, business expansion, and foreign tie-up.

February 2020

You have a sudden opportunity to make money – at the same time, your plans are beyond money. You are passionate, consistent, and determined to achieve your career or business goals. Indeed the results are in your favor. Socializing, meeting, gathering, and travel will expand your professional and personal network. Shiva blesses you with a good fortune in professional and personal life. Your bonding with the spouse and business partner becomes stronger. Romance, love, and affairs will take the next level in commitment. Be soft and polite with the people, and you will keep away from the hostility and biased unfavorable judgments of others.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

The year starts with your focus more on the actions than leisure. You are all set to achieve your goals have you have planned last year. One of them is socializing and connecting back with the people whom you have lost touch with in the past. Shiva helps you in executing your career and business goals with successful outcomes this year. You have realized that there are no short-cuts, and that is where you have opened the doors for consistent hard work and steady progress in your profession.

5 January

Money is your top priority to secure the future of your family. In other words, you are not money-minded but money-oriented, and you are ready to put your efforts. Shiva reminds you that you have already placed your bids for professional success, and now is the time for the results. Be consistent in executing your projects as planned as you will start seeing the results soon. New ideas, estimations, thoughts, and discussions will help you expand your business or find a better job. Reference will help you get more business or job opportunities with a better position and paycheck.

12 January

Promotion, higher paycheck, job change, or getting new business opportunities as an entrepreneur are your goals. You will put tireless efforts in strengthening your financial health. Shiva proposes your relationship partner, or spouse to share your business or professional responsibilities. If you are employed, ask for a reference from your partner's network to help you get a better job change. The new social and professional circle will be reliable and shall assist you in gaining more business avenues in your bag.

19 January

With a clear vision of professional success, you are utilizing every minute of your schedule, unless you are in a 9x5 job. You have plans to change your wardrobe or add a jewel casket in the locker. Buying flat, property, land, or extending one room in the house is in your mind – all this you need is for the family. Shiva warns you for being carried away from such flashy thoughts. You are settling with your finances after long years of effort. Take time to breathe before making any decisions. Involve your spouse, children, parents, and friends in the discussion before concluding your action.

26 January

Investment in new business opportunities, and higher the risk, higher the return will be your thought. Consult a professional before making a decision. You will have leisure time with your family. Spouse, parents, siblings, and children are your world. However, focusing on increasing money or wealth is an intentional goal to utilize the best in you by exploring the business opportunities, as well as the financial security of your family. Shiva expects you to go out of your way to expand the business territory, and you will his support to run the initiative. Short term gain from the investments, stock market, or lottery is possible. You may receive some news from the foreign associate, business partner, or overseas agent.

2 February

Consciousness beyond family, friends, business, profession, and job is bothering you – this is because of a lot of pressure you have taken to settle your liabilities for the last few months. Shiva advises you to take some time off for meditation, relaxation, and self-awareness. Greening and restoration is the need for this week. You are in the right direction for your success. Taking time off will continue your work pace as planned. However, a rejuvenation trip will also help you connect with new people, which will pour new ideas and dimensions for your business.

9 February

You have achieved high esteem and honor, which you will continue to gain more recognition throughout the year. Every person in the world has a heart, so has you. Shiva grants you time for romance and pleasure with your spouse or relationship partner. An instant monetary gain in business or unexpected return on investments will add a sum in your bank balance. You are in the right direction, as mentioned last week, and you have to reach out to a new social and professional circle to meet your business objectives. If you are employed, contact the right people for a job change, and you will certainly have one in your bag soon.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

Last year, you got to add many plans to execute and milestones to achieve in 2020. The month starts with celebration, gathering, meeting new people, and sharing knowledge. Later, you may face disappointment from the family, friends, and close associates as they fail to realize the depth of your concern for them as you are silent for most of the month. Shiva advises you to adopt relaxation, meditation, or rejuvenation to find internal peace. There are times when it is not being right or wrong. Instead, be silent to avoid further mishaps in the relations. You have lots of areas at the job, business, or professional front to pursue, and you better deal with those milestones instead of indulging in the domestic affairs for the month.

February 2020

Others continue not to understand you as the situation persists from the previous month. And you may have challenging times in your personal life with arguments with the spouse or relationship partner (unless the personal horoscope speaks otherwise). Initially, you are involved in religious, spiritual, and sacred conducts for some apparent reasons. You will also find yourself a pessimistic with the sense of inadequacy, skepticism, diffidence, and doubt in self strength. As the month progresses, things will be apparent to the mind. Shiva grants you a clear vision to fulfill the domestic responsibilities and work obligations. However, stay away from the ego and swelled head.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

You start your year by forgetting the hardship of the previous year and may get to meet new people with a mutual view and collective subjects that interest you. Although you are trying to avoid to recollect the casualties of career or personal life from the last year, you may find yourself in the mood swing due to the negative influence of your close associates. Shiva suggests you get rid of the attitude of resistance to change and accept new people in your life by letting go of the old acquaintances who might bother you frequently with their expectations. You may require to stay away from your work for the week to sit back and analyze where to start from your career once again.

5 January

While you are in a dilemma to continue or discontinue with the personal concerns, you may want to be blunt and open with your colleagues, bosses, or superiors about your expectations in the business or job. Delayed promises may hamper you. However, the situation may not be in your hands to fulfill the obligations/promises you made to your colleagues, clients, or business associates last month. Shiva advises you go with the flow and let a couple of weeks run without trying to figure out what's happening in the career or personal front. This week may put your credibility and trustworthiness at stake in the private and professional areas where you have no role to play but to revise your goals for 2020.

12 January

You are now firm to recreate your personal and professional network to avoid further delay in achieving your job, business, and personal goals. You have already sketched the plan for 2020 to meet, and for some of you based on the personal horoscopes, you have already prepared the multiyear graph to chase. Shiva blesses you with the innovative ideas, sets you free from worries, and you will find ways to listen to your gut feel with no dilemma between what you know and what you think. You may plan some social welfare activities with the help of your colleagues. A family gathering, reunion, meeting old friends or relatives will revitalize your energy.

19 January

With an innovative idea, you are positive and firmly following your plans. There is no look back while chasing your dreams. Shiva grants you the wisdom to handle the same old obstacles differently, and probably you are now ignorant of all the negative vibes coming your way. You are least bothered for holding yourself back for others and want to ensure to bring name, fame, money, and success with your honesty, hard work, creativity, and persistence. You are removing all the nonproductive activities from your list, including people who consume your creativity with their attention. You may narrow down your contact list to only those who are focused on contributing to your positivity.

26 January

You will enjoy personal and professional time with colleagues, new acquaintances, family, and friends. You will spend intimate time with your spouse and may have free communication about children, their future, and even the journey of life you have spent together for years – this may trigger a small celebration with close family members. You may go for the property trade, repair, and renovation of your office or home. Shiva warns you from encountering negative thoughts about your career if you see your growth or promotion is stuck or puzzled despite your potentiality and hard work for so many years at the same place. The year ahead will give you fair chances to regain all which is pending to reach you in terms of success, financial gains, and position.

2 February

You are positive, confident, full of knowledge, and wisdom. You may want to regulate your financial planning to secure your family's future. Property related deals, buying or selling a house, or other real estate trade may attract you. However, decide to buy or sell your personal property only if there is a need for it. Shiva suggests you invest your dead funds in long term equities or stocks – this is the right planetary configuration for you to make some wise investments and hold them till 2025. Consult your financial advisor before investing in the long terms stocks. Your career will have a positive turn. There are chances of change in role, rewards, and recognition.

9 February

Investment planning from the previous week continues until you block your idle funds in the solid plans. You increase your presence at work, business, and office. Shiva grants your business new avenues, contract renewals, projects, assignments, and you are loaded with action. You are yet to achieve the first milestone in 2020, which should happen soon. Your family life is balanced. However, stay away from the arguments with your spouse or relationship partner. You could be over dominating and commanding. At the same time, you will have close intimacy and happy moments with the spouse, which is a credit to the flexible nature of your partner.

~2020 Monthly Graph~

January 2020

A journey for business and work will be suitable to create new opportunities. You are ready to work hard to extend your professional reach to new territory. Migration to a foreign country is possible, or there are chances that you get your visa or immigration stamped. However, this prospect depends on a personal horoscope configuration. Money and wealth accumulation is your primary objective, which can see a rise in expenses through investments. Laziness or priority is not a question as you are already above it unless you are a newbie to your business or work environment. Shiva grants you the work-life balance despite lots of work in hand. And you will have family time with your folks.

February 2020

With the domestic and professional responsibilities, you are heading towards a chaotic start of the month, which eventually gets freed from ambiguity and confusion. Probability of relocation, migration, or transfer to new office, home, country continues this month. Shiva alerts you for the increasing expenses, which may arise for the sake of your inflated feeling of pride because of the lavish lifestyle. Focus on career, and in a quest for wealth, you are refusing to acknowledge love and romance in your life – this gives all genuine reasons for your partner to find warmth outside. Have a work-life balance unless you are all for money.

~2020 Weekly Graph~

1 January

So many pending tasks in the to-list from the previous year. Your resolution for 2020 is to finish all the undone activities tirelessly. Spare some leisure time this week before you start your new year resolution from the preceding year's kitty. Money is on the top of your goals, and you will revise your financial plan to be more realistic and feasible. You may hear some news from the overseas business associates or relatives. Shiva suggests you forget the holdback you had so far and avoid aggression or misbehavior with the people around you. Practicing meditation or a solo trip this week will help you rejuvenate.

5 January

This week could be challenging and you may try to balance your domestic and professional concerns, which could trigger at the same time. While you know the value of job/business at the current stage in life, you may prioritize or reshuffle your weekly task list to address the concerns of your children, lover, or spouse. Do not forget to appreciate your spouse or relationship partner of the sacrifice s/he has made to support you while you were busy dealing with the domestic and career-related issues. Shiva grants you favor in handling the household matters, and soon, you will direct yourself to work. Avoid huge investments or gambling for some time. Continue the regular pace at work and at home.

12 January

You will see improved relations with colleagues, peers, and family members. You may see money inflow in business as the week progresses. Shiva suggests you spend leisure time with the family instead of worrying for job/business – there are people to continue your work while you are away. Business tours, client visits, or meetings at remote places may yield favorable outcomes. Travel to native, hometown, or parents' house is possible.

You will enjoy family time while your colleagues will take care of your work. Take care of the health of your children. You may need to practice meditation or relaxation to avoid uneasiness or unnecessary thoughts.

19 January

Back to work, you are pacing up yourself to finish the checklist for the month. You are less focused on domestic affairs. Shiva grants you support from the family, spouse, children, and parents during the extra hours you may spend at work. Although you are not in a hurry to complete your task list, your speed to execute your job is faster, which may trigger some inaccuracy, which you may want to avoid with a peer review at work. Do not send proposals without reverifying from your colleagues, boss, or experts to avoid credibility issues about your working pattern. Bone pain, burning sensation, a small accident, or irritation may disappoint your routine.

26 January

You have progressed far from the previous week. In case you find any error in your work last week, be open to discuss the same with your colleagues or boss to revise the efforts. Focusing on work may fetch you recognition and rewards. Shiva warns you from being impulsive while dealing with domestic concerns, which may also result in impacting your mood or health. You may find it challenging to manage the finances. However, if you are conscious of your spending over the last few weeks, you may avoid a monetary constraint. Domestic irritation may raise mood fluctuations and arrogance, which you would surely want to control consciously.

2 February

You are intelligent and creative. However, the past instances are shadowing your talent. You may not want your mind to rule over your intellect. Shiva advises you to practice meditation, relaxation, chanting, and yogic practices. Reading motivational books, business articles, or blogs of your interest will help remain balanced and stress-free. While you are running like a headless chicken, you may want to stop at a point in time to rethink and get rid of the memories. Meeting new people will infuse positivity and new ideas in you. You may want to revise your priorities, goals, and targets for the year.

9 February

While you are reassessing your priorities concerning your interests, talents, and resources, you may get clarity of your goals for the future. Shiva reminds of no alternative to working hard. You can enroll yourself for higher learning, crash courses, or academics to upscale your knowledge. You will add new career goals to your list and are now determined to pursue them after so many revisions. While you are busy planning out your goals, you may see your family for their unfinished talks and concern. You are an ideal family member to respect others' values and perspectives. You will see relaxed moments while sorting out the domestic issues.
